REASONS TO CONSIDER

High Growth Potential
In 2020, the number of active online banking users was approaching 1.9bn worldwide. Forecasts suggest that number could reach 2.5bn by 2024, highlighting the vast reach in just one segment of this theme.1

Global Tailwinds
FinTech is a global theme, poised to benefit as expanding broadband and mobile internet penetration coincide with a rising middle class in developing markets, historically under-served by traditional financial services.

Changing Consumer Preferences
While FinTech companies have historically catered to the digital preferences of younger consumers, they are increasingly competing on cost and convenience across a range of more established industries like lending and insurance.

The performance data quoted represents past performance and does not guarantee future results. Investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor’s shares, when sold or redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance may be higher or lower than the performance quoted. High short-term performance, when observed, is unusual and investors should not expect such performance to be repeated. Shares of ETFs are bought and sold at market price (not NAV) and are not individually redeemed from the Fund. Brokerage commissions will reduce returns. Beginning October 15, 2020, market price returns are based on the official closing price of an ETF share or, if the official closing price isn’t available, the midpoint between the national best bid and national best offer (“NBBO”) as of the time the ETF calculates current NAV per share. Prior to October 15, 2020, market price returns were based on the midpoint between the Bid and Ask price. NAVs are calculated using prices as of 4:00 PM Eastern Time. The returns shown do not represent the returns you would receive if you traded shares at other times. Indices are unmanaged and do not include the effect of fees, expenses or sales charges. One cannot invest directly in an index.
